

Planning a Book Talk, Grades 2-3

A great nonfiction book talk makes other people want to read the book.

- 1. Choose a book you love.
- 2. Mark your favorite pages with sticky notes, so you can find them easily.
- 3. Use the following sentence starters to plan what you will say:
  - The title of my book is _____.
  - The author is _____.
  - My favorite things about this book is _____
_____.
  - The most interesting thing I learned is _____
_____
(Show page.)
  - Another thing I learned was _____
_____
(Show page.)
  - You should read this book because _____
_____.
- 4. During the presentation, hold up the book so everyone can see it. Give your audience just enough information to make them curious.
